Officers arrest 2 on drug charges

Officers of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol have arrested two Romulus residents in connection with an area narcotics ring. The two residents, a man — aged 32 — and a woman — aged 21, were charged with narcotics trafficking not only in Romulus, but surrounding communities as well.

An estimated $100,000 in drugs and two cars valued at a total of $10,000 were seized in the Sept. 10 arrests by the Metropolitan Narcotic Squad. According to Richard Stover, a lieutenant in the Road Patrol, the Metro Squad has been investigating the narcotics operation for nearly four months.

However, the lieutenant indicated that the arrests of the two residents will not end the investigation. "Future arrests in this investigation are anticipated," he said.

The names of the man and the woman have not been released pending further research into the alleged crime.

However, agents of the Metro Squad indicated that drug purchases were made at several businesses located within Romulus.

The names of the businesses have not been released by police.

Missed their flight

These weapons never made it onto the plane, thanks to Federal Aviation Administration rules that mandate a search of travelers and their hand luggage before boarding flights going out of Metropolitan Airport. Wayne County Sheriff Detective Bureau head Lt. George Balough (left) and Sgt. Frank Gasdorf of Wayne (right), are responsible for confiscating weapons and arresting persons found with such guns, knives, blackjacks and gas ejecting devices. Airport searches present a minor inconvenience to travelers, but, as Gasdorf explains, "would you like to fly next to someone carrying one of these?" — Photo by The Enterprise Roman Chief Photographer Lothar Konietzko.

Council clears funding to cure drain problems

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

Romulus officials have approved the spending of city funds to clean up the first of a series of nagging local drain problems in the community. The Romulus City Council has approved spending $25,000 to clear up the neighborhood drain problem in the Windcliff Subdivision near Wayne and Wick roads.

The funds would be used to reshape backyard drainage areas and to install more manholes near approximately 60 homes in the subdivision where rainwater gathers "like Lake Erie" in the words of one city official.

Members of the council thought they had the drain problem worked out when they received an agreement from some of the leaders of a protest against the city from the neighborhood to embark on a cooperative effort among the neighbors of the affected area.

However, to be implemented, the cooperative effort needed the participation of all 60 homeowners in the affected area.

The original solution to the problem, which appeared to meet the desires of a majority of residents in the affected area, was to dig up backyards and install a perforated drain pipe which would have carried away storm drainage from the low spots in backyards.

However the pipe would have to be installed through yards which did not suffer from the problem.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt said that the funds appropriated for the work on the project came from a special drainage fund established by the Romulus City Council in mid-summer when the city's millage rates were approved.

The council approved the levying of a special millage to cover drainage problems. The special levy would amount to $119,000 at full collection rates.

At present, citizens have paid taxes amounting to $48,000 into the fund, with collections still coming in from the mid-summer tax billing.

The fund was established to correct drainage problems caused by poor engineering and inspection of subdivisions in the city during the past 10 years.

The Windcliff Subdivision is less than 10 years old, according to reports of residents. But during that time, water has gathered in backyards in the area of Michele and Julie streets.

Last spring residents detailed problems with flooding which could have resulted in injuries to young children.

At times water was as deep as 18 inches laid at the back of yards for days on end without being absorbed into the regular drainage system.

The city was forced to undertake the drainage program itself because the problem area does not lie in the area serviced by the Wayne County drain commissioner since it referred to the city when it was incorporated in 1970.

Scanners find illegal baggage at airport gate

By MAUREEN RADEMACHER
Of The Roman Staff

The collection of hand guns, brass knuckles, knives, blackjacks and gas ejecting devices at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport division of the Sheriff's Department. Detective Bureau is not part of the agency's equipment.

Those dangerous weapons at one time all belonged to citizens who might have been sitting next to you on a scheduled airline flight. But they never made it onto the plane, thanks to federal regulations that insist passengers and hand luggage be searched before they are allowed on the plane.

The rule, enforced by the Federal Aviation Administration, was put into effect a few years ago to protect against hijacking of airplanes in flight.

Every person boarding a plane at Metro Airport must submit to scanning of luggage and purses before boarding, and themselves must pass the metal detector test before being allowed on the plane, according to Wayne County Sheriff Sgt. Frank Gasdorf. A Wayne resident, Gasdorf has worked at the airport for about a year.

Manned by security personnel, hired by the airlines, magnetometers are situated at the entranceways where passengers leave the main concourse to go to their planes, he said.

The passengers, as well as any friends or relatives seeing them off who wish to pass into the "sterile zone," must walk through the magnetometer, while their luggage goes on a conveyor belt through the fluoroscope.

If the machines register a large metallic mass, such as a gun, the airport security officers are informed, and they, in turn, summon the detectives of the Sheriff's Department.

Despite the fact that the discovery is made under federal inspection rules, once a weapon is found it becomes a matter of state law, Gasdorf said.

"As soon as the weapon is found, state law comes into effect, and we pursue it, using that state law for our authority," he added. "The law prohibits persons from carrying dangerous or concealed weapons, such as knives, handguns, gas ejecting devices and blackjacks."

Although there are some cases where a person may get a permit for carrying a concealed weapon, usually a businessman carrying large sums of money at certain times of the day or week, the law generally is very strict.

Even if a person has a permit to own a gun and has the weapon duly registered, that does not mean he can carry it legally, Gasdorf emphasized. Many people do not consider that fact when carrying a legally registered gun illegally.

He estimated that his department confiscates about 25 weapons a month through this means, and the persons involved are prosecuted successfully most of the time.

The rules of the federal search for weapons are clear — a person may refuse to submit, but then he will not be allowed to pass into the sterile area and board the plane.

A pocketful of loose change or other metal devices also can set off the machines, so sometimes a person will be asked to pass through the magnetometer after emptying the metal from his or pockets.

But even when people are found to have weapons, they often are ignorant of the fact that they're carrying it illegally. Some gas ejecting devices, frequently carried by "little old ladies" for protection, sometimes are advertised as "no permit required," Gasdorf said. But that simply is not true.

And many of the people who are caught with illegally carried weapons are not even boarding the plane at all.

"Many people who come in to see other people off or meet people also pass through the checkpoint," Gasdorf added. "But they have to be treated just like a passenger, and checked. And many times they don't know they're doing anything illegal."

Regardless of this ignorance, they are prosecuted.

"We sympathize with the people, but we have a job to do," he said. "I can't understand why so many people bring weapons with them."

"We'd like to caution all people who come to the airport — don't bring your weapon, because we are prosecuting the majority of the people who come through with one."

Adequate warning is given to visitors to the airport, with signs before the checkpoint telling exactly what kind of screening procedure will be required.

Gasdorf defended the reasoning behind the search, despite complaints from some people that it is an irritating and inconvenient procedure.

"This is for everyone's safety," he stressed. "Look at the cross section of stuff on this table," he said, pointing to an array of dangerous weapons collected over several weeks. "Just think if you were flying. Would you want to fly next to someone carrying one of these?"

"It might be a minor inconvenience, but no one person is singled out. Everyone must submit. Even if you do have a license to carry a concealed weapon, the federal government probably is not going to allow you to take it on the plane."

Police officers, who carry their guns off duty, must declare their weapons, and even then it often is up to the discretion of the pilot or policy of the airport as to whether or not he will be allowed to carry it on the plane. Gasdorf described a situation once where he had to transport a prisoner on a plane, but before he could fly out of Georgia to come back to Michigan, he had to surrender his gun and handcuffs to the authorities.

Such precautions have prevented hijackings that are frequent in other countries, he said.

The Sheriff Department Detective Bureau at the airport, manned by Gasdorf, Det. Jack Hopkins and Lt. George Balough, will be turning over their "weapon arsenal" soon to be destroyed, a procedure that happens with all confiscated weapons. And unless the trend changes, they'll have another batch ready for the incinerator in a few months.

'Opponents' together

Two former political opponents have joined forces with Mayor Terry L. Troutt in his re-election bid. Clayton W. Meldrum, who ran for mayor in the Sept. 8 primary election and polled 713 votes out of 3,766 cast, has pledged his support of Troutt.

State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-38th District), who was challenged by Troutt more than four years ago for the Lansing seat, Monday met with Troutt and Meldrum to discuss the upcoming election and to share ideas on how to campaign against Troutt's challenger, Councilman James C. Stewart.

"I ran against the mayor because no one else appeared to be ready to run," Meldrum said. "I think it's important that the people be given a choice in the campaign."

Meldrum added that he had made a pact with Stewart before the primary election to lend his support to Stewart if he made it into the general election.

"But he turned on me, and my family in the end, and we were supposed to be working with him," Meldrum said.

Meldrum described his differences with Troutt as "minimal political differences, not the kind that couldn't be resolved."

During the campaign Meldrum had criticized Troutt for surrounding himself "with people who didn't have the good of all citizens in Romulus at heart" but following his defeat, Meldrum indicated he received no promise of personal benefit in exchange for support to the incumbent.

Meldrum said: "No deals have been cut."

MUCC observes hunting and fishing days

The mayors of Belleville and Romulus have proclaimed Saturday as the official Hunting and Fishing Day in the two

Western Wayne County communities. The proclamations were issued last week by Mayor Terry L. Troutt of Romulus and Mayor Ellis Amerman of Belleville. The proclamations are part of a statewide observance spearheaded by the Michigan United Conservationists Clubs (MUCC). According to the two mayors, "Hunters and fishermen asked for the establishment of regulated seasons and bag limits so that sportsmen could harvest the annual crop of game fish and without damage to the basic breeding population." They added that the sportsmen also asked that their fishing and hunting equipment be taxed and that the money be used for land acquisition, research and habitat management for fish and wildlife "for the enjoyment of all Americans."

"Through their publications and organizations, hunters and fishermen have led the nation in the battle for a better environment and the wise use of our natural resources," the two mayors said in the proclamations.

To Our Fellow Citizens of Romulus Thank you...

For your faith, trust and confidence in the Troutt Team and the many achievements of the Troutt Administration on behalf of the People of Romulus and your City. We offer our deepest gratitude to all our Fellow Citizens who supported our efforts and candidacy in every way during the Primary Election.

The many achievements we have made for the People and the City of Romulus in only 22 months is not so much a credit to us as it is to the faith and trust that You—the people of Romulus—have shown in the Troutt Team candidates and our sincere, hard work we have demonstrated in such a short time in the public service of our City. We are deeply grateful for the recognition you have given all the candidates of the Troutt Team for their honest and sincere efforts—just as you did when you put us on top in the general election in 1973. Now—we are depending on your continued support, faith and confidence in order to continue the Platform of Progress we have started for the People and the City of Romulus. We do not want to foresake the Progress we have started, which Romulus so much needs.

Council eases animal ordinance

It will be easier to board a horse in Romulus

Animal lovers in Romulus who have suffered under the community's former more stringent animal control ordinance, may have a respite.

The Romulus City

Council has approved adoption of a new animal control ordinance which, among other changes, reduces the minimum amount of acreage needed to own a horse in the community.

The major section of the bill which caused the most concern among city residents, is a requirement of 1.5 acres of land excluding the land taken up by a home, for ownership of a horse.

In the past, residents living in certain areas were allowed to own a horse if they held five acres of land and were in the proper zoning classification.

Under the new ordinance, any residents living in a zoning other than commercial with 1.5 acres or more of land up to 10 acres is allowed to keep a horse.

Requirements are that a second horse have at least one acre of land before it is housed on the property.

Other provisions of the ordinance require a city inspection of property and buildings for housing animals before horses are kept there.

Persons desiring a permit for a horse must apply at the Romulus City Hall.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt hailed passage of the ordinance as "the end of two years of hard work by the City Council and administration."

"I've never been involved in as much work for a community ordinance as the work required for this document," Troutt said. "I know it won't please all the people in Romulus, since no document will please everyone, but this ordinance goes a long way toward allowing persons the freedom to own livestock while protecting the rights of their neighbors and protecting the animals themselves.

"I'm proud of those persons on the City Council who stuck it out through a seemingly endless number of meetings to insure that this ordinance works."

Proposal of the ordinance two years ago brought out public protest at a special meeting designed to hear the public's opinion on the control measure.

The Romulus Horseman's Association was formed in an effort to combat the measure, but ended up with a voice in the drafting of the ordinance before it was approved.

Police probe death

Michigan State Police still are investigating a fatal pedestrian accident which caused a massive 1½-hour traffic tie-up on I-94 in Van Buren Township.

Police are checking into witnesses reports on the accident in which an of the Rawsonville Road exit.

Traffic was tied up for 1½-hours, and was diverted north on Belleville Road starting at 1:30 p.m. Friday when the tanker truck caught on fire.

As they see it

Old is beautiful

To the editor: I would like to reply to Mrs. Mazur's letter. I do not intend this letter as a criticism or offensive reply to her. She is to be admired for voicing her personal opinion on this matter.

Too many people sit silent and neither voice an aye or nay to anything that happens around them. It is an admirable trait to know that someone will speak their true feelings on any given matter.

But to say Romulus is a city of the old really upset my feelings. When I think of old I do not think of rot and decay. I think of beauty and respect that is to be treasured.

To say old is unfeeling to basic human needs is to say no one cares. The old do care, very much.

In regard to the Memorial Day Parade, do not blame the old. Blame the director of the parade. If the old folks' children or grandchildren had been included in that parade, they would have been there watching them.

Can you remember how many elementary, junior high or high school bands were invited to participate in the parade? How many Brownie troops, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts were in the parade? How many civic groups dressed as clowns and entertained the children?

I hope you can, and then ask yourself why no one watched.

Was it a parade of beautiful floats prepared by adults solely for adults?

The old are an extension of the young and the young an extension of the old. If children and grandchildren had been included you would have seen people.

People have a strange quirk of wanting to be proud of things and the most important thing they are proud of is an extension of themselves, namely their children and grandchildren.

They are not proud of directors of parades, committees or commissions.

When people are included they feel they belong. When they are excluded they feel they are intruding and do not go forth regardless of age.

Romulus should be proud, to a degree, that it is known as a city of the old. I am young, but to be considered old to me is a compliment.

It shows dignity and wisdom, something we in America do not acknowledge in our old. The general feeling is to push the old aside, saying you have lived your life, let us live ours. But to quote a famous statement of Max Ehrmann's; "Take kindly the counsel of the years gracefully surrendering the things of youth."

I am not being critical of people who want to advance, but let us not oppress ourselves with yearnings when we can make do with what we have. All it takes is a little imagination.

If and when we achieve the status of citydom as other cities that are old have and we are able to cope with the problems that are involved with being a city, these bond issues that were voted down will come naturally. But first we must admit we are a young city and we must suffer the pangs and heartaches of growing up. We must go through our adolescence, our young adulthood, our mature years and when we attain old age as a city, I hope it will be done as gracefully as the many old people we know.

They are old in chronological years, but alive in their minds and bodies.

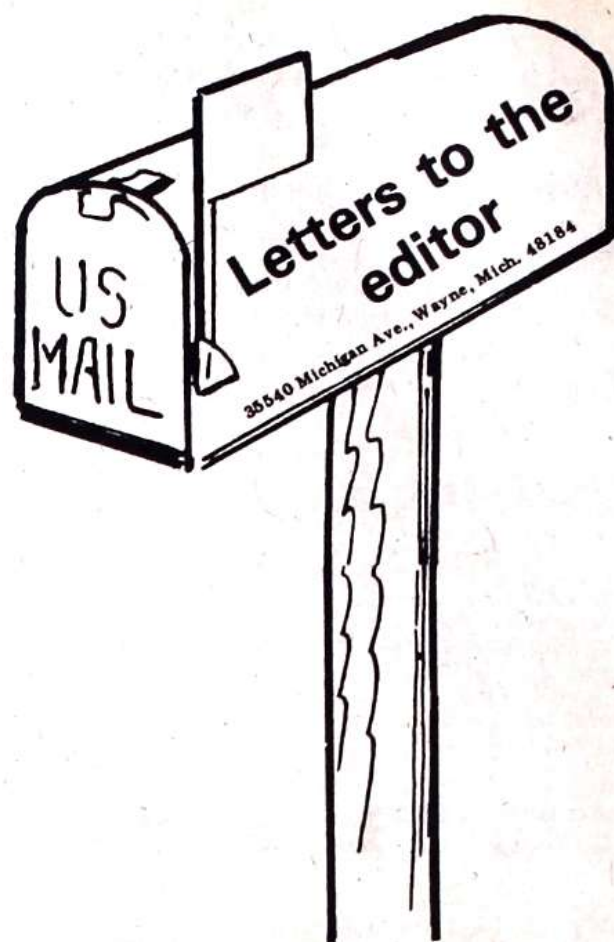

They fight for high ideals and justice throughout the land. A more beautiful group you will never encounter than the old who suffer their afflictions silently and pray for a better world for their offspring.

To them I render thanks.

I hope I don't sound so idealistic that you will not print this letter, for I am sincere in what I say.

But to see the word old used insultingly hurts me deeply. My parents are old in years, but their minds are so great they have guided me as well as their other children through years of young happiness. Thank God the old live among us and are with us forever—"I hope."

A no voter

To the editor, an open letter to the proponents of the recent bond issues: When the recent bond issues for a recreation center and road paving were defeated, all articles seemed to indicate that the people who were responsible for their defeat, voted accordingly in order to keep taxes down. As one who voted against these bond issues, I did not agree since that was not my reason.

Now that campaign literature is circulating heavily, again I note that the opponents to the bond issues are using this in their reasoning. Therefore, I would like to set the record straight.

I am sure I speak for others beside myself when I explain that I voted against the bond issue, but not to keep taxes down. If I could be sure that our city government would have given us all that was promised, especially with the recreation center, I would have no objection to paying the proposed higher taxes. Let's face it, you can't have the needed things without paying for them and a recreation center is badly needed.

However, our city government over the years, in several administrations, has not inspired that kind of confidence that made me feel I could be sure there would not be a lot of waste in the funds—as there is in many parts of the budget—and that the taxpayers truly would get all that was proposed.

When our various administrators start trimming the waste that we are all aware of—and probably much we are not aware of—then I am sure there are many of us willing to pay more taxes to help Romulus to progress to the kind of community we all want.

FLINT (Feb. 11, 1937) — The 44-day-old sit-down strike by the United Auto Workers (UAW) against General Motors ended here today.

An agreement was signed in Detroit earlier today. Provisions of the agreement include recognition of the UAW as a bargaining agent for its members for at least six months, a commitment to begin collective bargaining talks Feb. 16, and the ending of the strike with evacuation of the occupied plants.

Union workers held the plants for 44 days.

The strike was relatively peaceful with only one incident of violence between police and strikers in mid-January.

Union leaders hailed the agreement as a "vital victory" for the union.

Wyndham Mortimer, first-vice president of the UAW said: "Our key demand was for recognition of the UAW as the sole bargaining agent for its members. In effect, we have this guarantee for six months."

He praised Gov. Frank Murphy.

"The governor was under tremendous pressure. He was being attacked from many sides, but he knew that the time had come for a change in employer-employee relations," Mortimer said.

The sit-down strike actually only involved about 2,000 workers, but at the peak of the walkout more than 100,000 General Motors workers were idled. Most of them awaiting parts from striking plants.

A mustang at the door?

Newspaper editors, along with local police and mayors, usually are on top of the list for localities who either are looking for a sympathetic ear or have a beef and need to blow off some steam.

And editors also find themselves on the receiving end of invitations for luncheons and dinners and many civic affairs. Occasionally manufacturers send small sample product to the newspaper trying to gain some publicity, and publishers mail books hoping for a favorable review.

Those calls, "gifts" and in vitations aren't unusual. But recently this editor received a couple of "gifts" through the mail which brought some chuckles from all the staff.

The first came on a Tuesday. In a mysterious-looking little cloth bag, I found a miniature horseshoe. The sender? Who else, but Ford Motor Co.

Why? A little token to remember Ford's 1975 Mustang II.

The next "gift" came on Wednesday. And while it got lots of chuckles in the newsroom, it brought a little embarrassment to Display Advertising Manager Andy Hodge.

Andy just happened to be picking up the mail that day at the Wayne Post Office and came walking out with a Hula Hoop, straight from Wham-o Manufacturing Co. in California.

A Hula Hoop coming to your hometown daily stumped him. And the looks from postal patrons caused embarrassment. It did take a little explaining on my part.

About a week before, I received a letter from Edward E. Headrick, executive vice-president of Wham-O, reading, in part: "If this had happened years ago, we'd have gone down the Escalator, taken an Aspirin, and played with our Yo-Yo on the Linoleum floor."

Now that may sound like quite a confusing beginning to a letter, but he went on: "But, because people kept putting a slash bar through these registered trademarks, the manufacturers were stripped of their rights. The words were lower cased and exploited by competitors and imitators."

"We don't want this to become our fate. We have thought of emulating Rosten's Hyman Kaplan and sending out releases about our H-U-L-A H-O-O-P, F-R-I-S-B-E-E and S-U-P-E-R B-A-L-L. However, we were afraid that if we did, the poor computer programmers would wind up with a bad case of Frisbee finger, reaching so frequently for the asterisk key."

"Would you please consider a much less painful approach and specify capitalization of the words Frisbee, Hula Hoop and Super Ball."

"Thank you from the bottom of our registered trademark."

Well, it seems we made a mistake. We published some pictures of Wayne youngsters participating in a Hula Hoop contest and used the down-case style for the words Hula Hoop. Apparently that came to the attention of Mr. Headrick and off in the mail goes the letter about capitalization of trademarks and one sample Hula Hoop.

Now not being a Hula Hooper myself, I urged Henry Canton to demonstrate. Our veteran reporter got the hoop up to his waist but refused to start his hips swinging, even though the staffers on hand promised not to tell his wife, who Henry affectionately calls Babe.

Well, that's enough about that strange "gift." But do you think that if I accidentally lower cased the M in mustang II, I'd find a new model standing in front of the Eagle office? It wouldn't hurt trying!

Medical program groups established in state

Western Wayne County has joined six other Michigan counties in forming one region of an 8-region statewide grouping for health planning and development, according to information released by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) to the Michigan Association for Regional Medical Programs (MARMP), which will be playing a supportive role in implementing the new program.

The plan, drawn up by Jay G. Endsley, director of the Office of Health and Medical Affairs and a member of the MARMP Regional Advisory Group, essentially follows the boundaries of the 10 current areawide comprehensive health planning (CHP) agencies for Michigan. The exceptions are areas 2 and 3 which consolidate the two CHP areas within each.

The eight designated areas will be the basis for appointing new Health Systems Agencies (HSAs) to serve the health planning and development needs of Michigan. The new system required by the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 which was signed by President Ford in January, will replace the three existing federal health planning and development efforts whose authorizations this past year reached a total of more than $700 million nationally.

The act provides for the establishment of a nationwide system of HSAs which will combine, revise or abolish the functions of the Regional Medical Programs, CHP, the Hill-Burton program, Area Health Education activities and the Experimental Health Services delivery system.

The local HSAs will have the power to approve or disapprove proposed federal expenditures for new construction, alcoholism prevention and mental health treatment, as well as some public health services in their areas. In addition, an HSA will have the authority to review, approve or disapprove requests for federal funds from the National Research Institute, Health Research and Teaching Act, Training of Professional Health Personnel and Nursing Training Act when the people and services to be funded are in the area administered by that HSA.

Seniors can sidestep social security banking

Western Wayne County seniors now have the opportunity to sidestep monthly bank visits when it comes to social security checks.

Seniors, or those receiving the federal supplemental money can have their checks deposited into their checking or savings accounts, under a new voluntary program. The social security recipients have the choice of having the direct deposit program or still having the checks delivered to their homes.

For those people who want their social security checks mailed to a bank, savings bank or savings and loan association, can arrange for the direct deposit by filling out the authorization form - SF-1199 - available at most banking institutions. However, completion of the form does not permit withdrawals from the account by anyone other than those who have authorization.

League readies cabaret

The Romulus Civic League will begin the first of a series of cabaret-style social nights Saturday at the Civic League Hall on Wahrman Road in the community.

Scheduled for 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., the social nights will feature entertainment by records, dancing and games for a $1 admission charge. Persons participating in the cabaret will be treated to a free set-up each night. The Sept. 27 social night will feature a smorgasbord dinner for $2.75 for adults and $1.50 for anyone under 12 years between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. with the social night activities following. Any adult over 18 years of age is invited to attend the function.

Belleville loses opener, 25-19

Wayne mars record for Tigers

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Belleville may have lost the opening battle, but the war has just begun.

A stubborn Belleville grid machine rallied twice to tie avengeful Wayne Memorial Friday night before losing a 25-19 overtime thriller to its nonleague rival before a crowd of about 3,500 chilly fans.

It was the first time in nearly a decade that a Wayne football team had beaten the local contingent. The loss also spoiled Pat Stokes' debut as Belleville's head football coach.

"I'm proud of our kids and our coaching staff," Stokes said. "Sure, we made our mistakes, but we came back in the second half and showed them we can play ball."

Stokes noted that, "because some of our regulars were out, we had people playing in positions they had never played before."

However, he pinpointed Rutherford's (Roy) perfect punt-block which resulted in the 19-19 tie and Scrip-ter's excellent showing at quarterback as "keeping us in the game."

Scripter hit on 6-of-6 passes in the second half for 85 yards and scored one of the three touchdowns.

The Tigers' leading rusher was Kevin Barnes who picked up 55 in 15 carrying attempts.

Belleville will open up the 1975 Suburban 8 Conference campaign Friday afternoon at Dearborn, a team that blanked Southgate in its opener.

"Dearborn is a very similar team to Wayne," Stokes said. "They're big and they come after you in the same way."

Wayne's Mike Melcher generated most of the Zebra yardage as he broke a school rushing record when he amassed 221 yards. He also scored a touchdown.

In the overtime, Wayne quarterback Rick Preston hit Jeff Braun on the second play from scrimmage with a 9-yard pass that resulted in the tie-breaker.

Scripter tried three unsuccessful aerial plays, then was nailed by Don Gotham behind the line of scrimmage to end the game.

"I felt it was a very good team effort," said Floyd

Carter, Wayne High coach. "And I thought the kids played all the way to the end and did an exceptional job in the overtime."

It was the first time since 1964 that Wayne had beaten Belleville on the gridiron. It broke what many Wayne fans "felt was a jinx."

It took Wayne only eight plays to get on the scoreboard in the first period. Bob Vojtkofsky climaxed a 55-yard drive, sparked by Melcher's rushes, with a 1-yard TD run. Then, Bob Lusk booted the extra point to quickly establish a 7-0 Zebra lead, with 2:26 showing on the clock.

With Melcher again in the spotlight, Wayne put together a 49-yard, 12-play drive early in the second quarter that ended with Pat Sheridan grabbing a Preston 2-yard pass for the touchdown. Lusk's point after attempt was thwarted, however, because of a high pass from center.

Five minutes later, Belleville got on the board at 4:16. Quarterback Dan Scripter provided the Zebras with a lot of frustration with his passes as he engineered a 10-play, 68-yard sustained drive which was capped by Kevin Barnes' 4-yard touchdown run.

Roy Rutherford tried the extra point attempt and made it.

Belleville's momentum carried into the third quarter as the Tigers controlled the game for the first six minutes. Scripter, who hit on six for six passes in the second half, guided the host on a 68-yard, 10-play hike to the nine where he slipped off tackle to score.

Rutherford's conversion attempt found the uprights for the extra point and the game was deadlocked at 13-13.

Melcher broke the ice four minutes later when he eluded a host of would-be Belleville tacklers and sprinted 35 yards into the end zone. That polished off an 80-yard, 9-play drive, but Lusk booted the ball short of the goal posts in his point after try and that left Wayne with a 19-13 edge.

In what was a picture-perfect punt block by Rutherford of a Sheridan attempt resulted in the game-tying score. Pinned down at their own 20-yard line, the Zebras called upon Sheridan to punt them out of danger. However, Rutherford rushed in unmolested and took the ball almost off of Sheridan's toes and ran it back 20 yards into the end zone.

Belleville had a chance to go ahead, but missed the extra point and the two teams played out the final 4:48 minutes of the quarter without settling their differences.

It took the overtime pass by Preston to Braun to end it.

Prokop's perfect in his prediction of football games

A member of the Associated Newspapers' learned "Panel of Experts", whose job it is to predict high school football games each week, got off to an auspicious start.

Bob Prokop, an ex-Detroit Catholic Central star, turned in a 10-for-10 first week — and only a few pan-ists can boast such a feat.

So, keep an eye on his predictions. They could be the key to the outcome of your favorite team's performance.

Trojans spoil Wilson's debut

Trenton, one of the golf powers in the Suburban 8 Conference, ruined Scott

Wilson's debut as Belleville High's head golf coach. The Trojans won a convincing 22-stroke victory over Wilson's Tigers on the Belleville home course at Lemon Tree.

"I feel we have the potential to field a competitive team," Wilson said. "We're a young and inexperienced squad but these kids are dedicated golfers and I'm sure we'll take our share."

Wilson, a graduate of Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri, replaced Sam Vicchy at the helm of the Tiger golf machine. He inherited one letterman off of last year's team. The holdover is Rick Muse, a senior.

Jeff Tuscoff shot a 4-over-par 40 to pace Trenton's 167-189 victory over their league rivals. Belleville's top man was Muse who turned in a 44.

Belleville had two 48s with Greg Cicotte and Jon Batcer while Mark Gray was one stroke back with a 49. Jeff Kelly and Jeff Hoeman had their problems, shooting 52 and 50, respectively.

It didn't take long for the Tigers to present Wilson with his first win, however. Muse fired a 40 to lead the Tigers to a lopsided 179-194 victory over nonleague rival Garden City East.

Cicotte came in with a 43 and teammates Jeff Hoeman and Gray had 48s for the 9-holes at Belleville's home course. "All indications are we are going to improve," Wilson said.

Romulus drops opener

Coach Tom Baldwin has heard of Oak Park, but has no knowledge of its football strength.

"They're an unknown quantity as far as we're concerned," said Baldwin about his team's next foe. "We have no idea what to expect from them, especially since they have a brand new staff and are in a new league."

Oak Park didn't play last weekend, adding to the mystery surrounding the Parkers' ability. However, Romulus did make its debut and lost a 21-7 decision to a visiting Royal Oak Shrine contingent on Saturday.

"We gave them two TD's in the first half," Baldwin said. "And you can't do that and expect to win."

Romulus's defense, led by junior tackle Andy Orgovan, roverback Jim Parker and downed lineman Ed Abbott, managed to shut out the visitors the first 12 minutes of the game.

But Shrine put 12 points on the board in the second quarter and that proved enough to win. The team turned it into a 21-0 game into the third quarter before Romulus scored its first touchdown of the game and season.

The Eagles capped a 76-yard drive, sparked by the rushes of Tony Hensley and Dwight Walker, with a 11-yard scoring pass play from quarterback Michael Morrison and tight end Jeff Frazee.

Bob Blundell booted the extra point with 2½ minutes left on the clock. There wasn't much time for anything else but an onside kick which Shrine pounced on.

The Eagles two separate touchdown threats came in the second period when Don McMann intercepted but handed the ball back to the visitors at the Romulus 11-yard line.

A bad punt set up Shrine's first TD that Mike Bach eventually ran in from the 9-yard line, and Jim Plaskey's 1-yard plunge accounted for the other Shrine score in the second quarter.

There was a marked improvement by Romulus, however, over last year's opener at Shrine. The Eagles were blanked in that one, 35-0.

Morrison looked good in his first outing as QB as he connected on six of 14 passes for 59 yards and one touchdown.

"I'm confident that this team is going to win its share of games," Baldwin said. "We made our mistakes, now we have to correct them."

DEAR ROMULUS CITIZENS,

STEWART

A "NEEDED CHANGE" ...FOR ROMULUS

Again, I wish to thank the many friends, who with their enthusiasm, services, donations and votes, supported my campaign for Mayor.

I have no doubt that the citizens of our city want the "NEEDED CHANGE" in Romulus government, want a new Mayor, want a new Independent Council and will prove this on Election Day - November 4, 1975.

The recent primary vote clearly indicated that the majority of Romulus citizens want "THE NEEDED CHANGE" in Romulus government.

I have decided to remain an Independent candidate for Mayor and support the Independent candidates for Council that are the people's choice.

I have always been an Independent candidate for political office, making no political or financial ties, pledges or promises, or commitments to retain my position during the past 12 years. I certainly don't intend to start now.

As your Mayor, with the assistance of a new Independent Council, I will strive to hold the line on taxes and trim the fat from city spending.

MY FIRM BELIEF IS that I-o-o-s-e spending of the taxpayers money must be stopped immediately, political teams, groups, slates must be done away with so that government can be returned to the people.

Please watch for and read my message to you each week in this newspaper.

Thank You.

Michigan's fall colors to arrive a week early

Use your camera to capture the beauty of Michigan's fall color season to savor after the leaves have fallen and are covered by winter's snow, suggests the Automobile Club of Michigan.

Michigan's rugged Great Lakes shoreline, jewel-like inland lakes, rolling countryside and quaint little villages provide a scenic background for the vivid hues of woods in autumn color.

Bert Emanuele, chief photographer for Auto Club's Motor News magazine, advises camera buffs in search of fall color photos to "think color and watch for interesting props."

"Try to include some action or activity when shooting to get the more natural look," he said. "For instance, when photographing Michigan's colorful autumn scenes, make sure you include a child or animal in your picture."

"Or, to get a farm atmosphere, photograph a farmhouse or a cornfield with trees in the background."

Emanuele added that interesting props would include historical markers, old lighthouses, rustic bridges and cider mills.

Upper Peninsula camera buffs in search of fall color pictures might investigate the many ghost towns and abandoned mines that can be found in the Keweenaw Peninsula.

Color tours in the Leelanau Peninsula and Traverse City area include scenic lighthouses—at Northport and on the Old Mission Peninsula. A fish hatchery and Christmas tree farms are some of the attractions in the Cadillac area, while the Lake Shore Scenic Drive will provide awesome views of woods and water between Petoskey and Mackinaw City.

Because of last month's record rainfall, the fall color season will arrive in Michigan at least a week earlier than last year.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP HEALTH BOARD ANNUAL CEMETERY MEETING

August 28, 1975

Supervisor Gollwitzer called the meeting to order at 4:05 P.M.

Members present were: Supervisor Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin, Treasurer York.

Also present were Township attorney Rice, Sec'y Soja and members of the 4 Cemetery Associations. A discussion meeting was held due to the lack of a quorum of Township Board members.

Mr. R. Robson spoke for the Tyler Street Cemetery Association. He stated the Association was formed in 1938 and it is an active Association. They are now only selling lots from the new section. Their budget allotment of $700 per year is adequate for this year.

Mr. G. Renton and Mrs. Florence Renton spoke for the Otisville Cemetery Association. The cemetery was surveyed in 1974. It is not known if some plots are used. These are marked "Not Vacant" until it is established otherwise. Their budget of $500.00 per year is adequate.

Mr. McKelvey spoke for the Denton Cemetery Association. He thanked the Township for the new shed and improvements. He said that more gravel is needed for the re-routing of one of the drives, and 2 broken posts should be repaired. The budget of $700. per year is tight and they are just breaking even.

Mr. Lau and Mr. Herkimer spoke for the Pleasantview Cemetery Association. Disbandment procedures were discussed. Attorney Rice explained the Cemetery Association first would have to pass a resolution to that effect, then notice of disbandment has to be published for 6 weeks and then at the last meeting a vote to disband. They said they really did not want to disband if they could get some help.

General discussion of problems in all cemeteries were discussed, such as grave diggers not giving the respective association the burial permits, old records are not complete, maps are not updated, etc. Clerk Cullin said that the Township would try to set up some sort of system as policy or by-laws to follow on all procedures so that the Township could up-date and keep current all its records and the respective associations would have the same. Mrs. Kathy Horste, who is working on the Township cemetery records, asked if all the associations would co-operate with her in updating the Township records by lending her their records so that she can compile them with the Townships. Each association would be given a completed record of as much as can be obtained.

Perpetual Care funds were explained by the Township attorney. All interest except the principal in the fund could be used for grave or cemetery upkeep. The first $20. of interest could be used for that particular grave. Anything over the $20. could be used for cemetery upkeep.

The meeting was recessed at 5:25 P.M. until the Sept. 9, 1975 regular Township Board meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Patricia Cullin, Clerk
ANNUAL CEMETERY MEETING...TOWNSHIP BOARD OF HEALTH

AT THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES
The meeting was reconvened by Mr. Gollwitzer at 9:25 P.M.

Present were Supervisor Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin, Treasurer York, Secretary Soja and Trustees Maton, Kelly, Domen, and Kureth. Absent none. Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to approve the budgets of $700.00 for the Tyler Street, Pleasant View, and Denton Cemeteries. A budget of $500.00 was approved for the Otisville Cemetery. Carried.

Supervisor Gollwitzer and Clerk Cullin reported on the new record keeping system being instituted by the township. A numbered lot card for each lot has been placed in a separate cemetery book. Each cemetery is being walked, and each grave located and recorded on the lot cards. Deed stubs for lot sales, and burial certificates will be attached to the lot cards as they are used. An alphabetical cross reference system of names of the deceased has also been prepared.

After a discussion of cemetery problems, it was decided that the clerk's office would become the official agency for all grave openings in the Township. The funeral homes will contact us directly to have graves dug beginning October 1, 1975. The DPW will do the digging. All local funeral homes, and the Cemetery Associations will be notified by mail of the new procedure. Motion by Kelly, support Cullin, to adopt the above. Carried.

Motion by Kelly, support Domen, to adjourn at 9:55. Carried.

Respectfully Submitted,
PATRICIA CULLIN, Clerk

Miss Dugan gains degree

A New Boston resident was among a group of 25 students to graduate in the first class of an accelerated nursing baccalaureate program, designed with a community focus, at Eastern Michigan University (EMU).

Mary Dugan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dugan of Ellis, New Boston, received a bachelor of science degree in nursing during recent commencement ceremony. She also was presented with her degree pin.

Administered through the College of Human Services, the 3-year-old Department of Nursing Education already is a popular one at EMU, a spokesman said. Each year since its inception, some 300 prospective students have applied. But annual enrollment must be limited to about 60 students due to availability of clinical facilities and other considerations.

Coordinators of the nursing program are assistant professors Edith Raleigh and Judith Floyd. Along with 10 other faculty members, they teach courses stressing nursing with a community approach.

"Our nurses are trained with a greater emphasis on community rather than institutional nursing," Miss Raleigh said. "They get clinical practice not only in hospitals, but in clinics and nursing homes. The students also make home visits to patients and their families."

Students are admitted to the nursing program after they complete their freshman year. The program itself is three years — six consecutive semesters — and students attend classes year-round.

NEW KINGSTON TRIO

Kingston Trio to entertain

They skyrocketed to fame in the late 1950s with "Tom Dooley," and followed their success with such songs as "The MTA," "Early Morning Rain" and "The Midnight Special." The special sounds of The Kingston Trio will come alive again when the New Kingston Trio performs in a special 1-night appearance at the Squires Lounge and Dining Room at the Ramada Inn in Romulus.

The new group consists of Bob Shane, Bill Zorn and Roger Gamble who will be entertaining Western Wayne County patrons with old Trio favorites and some new ballads at 7:30 and 10 p.m. performances.

The group originally was formed in 1957 by three recent college graduates who spent 10 years entertaining audiences with their unique brand of folk tunes. Shane is the only original member of the group, which broke up in 1967. However, with entertaining in his blood, he tried to keep the trio alive, calling on Zorn, formerly of The New Christy Minstrels, and Gamble, formerly of Gamble and Moore, to help him.

The New Kingston Trio's entertainment style combines the old favorites like "Dooley" and "Scotch and Soda" with new songs that definitely are today.

The trio shucks formality, exchanging jokes and responding to the mood of their audiences.

Whether it's nostalgia that makes the new trio so popular, or light-hearted folk entertainment, or its unusual calypso-country musical style, the New Kingston Trio seems to provide something for today's audiences.

Residents net 'chipping' help

Residents of Van Buren Township will receive tree chipping service, courtesy of their tax dollars, once again this year.

George Kunkel, supervisor of the Van Buren Township Department of Public Works said that limbs, branches and trimmings from fall pruning in Van Buren yards must be placed near the road in front of the home to be disposed of by the township.

The township cannot handle tree stumps, roots, trunks or branches of more than 4 inches in diameter, however.

Residents wishing to make arrangements for the service can set up appointments by calling 699-2001 between the regular business hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Township residents can have their tree cuttings chipped and removed at no extra costs, since the service is covered by tax payments made each year.

To register for the course, call Linda Rhodehouse at 274-5450.

Milan blanks Huron Chiefs, 30-0

But it's the same ole grid story

Although they failed to get on the scoreboard for their tenth consecutive football game, New Boston Huron's Chiefs showed they are an improved team over a year ago.

The Chiefs dropped a 30-0 nonleague opener at Milan on a chilly Friday night, but first year Huron Head Coach Tom LaBeau was impressed at some of the things he saw.

"I feel we played well the first half," LaBeau said. "But second half mental mistakes caused us problems and they (Milan) took advantage."

New Boston trailed by seven at the close of the second quarter then, for all purposes, the Chiefs were out of the game in the next 12 minutes when the hosts exploded for two touchdowns to take an insurmountable 23-0 lead into the finale.

Huron had a couple of serious TD drives stalled by penalties, tossing the Chiefs back from touchdown territory.

"We will have to eliminate those mistakes," LaBeau stressed, "in order to improve our performances."

Quarterback Craig Beattie was the Chiefs' offensive leader but he didn't have a good game, according to the Huron coach.

"Craig also broke loose on two punt returns," LaBeau said. "He definitely was our offensive leader in this game."

However, we expected more from him and expect him to get better."

Jeff Stoker also picked off two errant passes, one in midfield and the other deep in Milan territory. But the Chiefs couldn't cash in on the opportunities. Penalties set the Chiefs back.

Huron has a date with Flat Rock Friday night at 7:30 p.m. The two will open up the 1975 conference season in Flat Rock. The Rocks also got off to a slow start as they bowed to Sandusky 26-7 in a nonleague.

"They (Flat Rock) don't have the depth they used to in the past — they lost a lot to graduation," said LaBeau. "But, traditionally, they have been tough defensively and we're going to have to generate some offense if we're going to stay in the game with them."

Romulus High harriers ready at starting line

A young and enthusiastic Romulus High cross country team will get its first taste of competition tomorrow at the annual Dearborn Heights Annapolis Invitational Meet.

Coach Al Wilkerson has five returning lettermen in the fold including juniors Wendell Buckley, Denardo Green, Joe Schieda and sophomore Steve Zimmerman.

"We're going to be a pretty decent team this season," said Wilkerson whose Eagles posted a 5-3-1 won-lost-tied year in '74. "But we're pretty young and are still in a building process."

In his third year as head coach, Wilkerson has built the team from scratch. He had 14 runners turn out for the varsity squad and two, Jeff Warren, a junior, and Bob Lemmon, look impressive.

"We're going to take our licks but we have turned the corner," Wilkerson said.

Flyers land 2 victories

Doing an aboutface from their opening day football series, the Romulus Flyers swept two of three games from the Westland Rockets.

The game commemorated the Flyers' Homecoming Day. The freshman team had the defense but couldn't generate enough offense as it bowed to the Westlanders 6-0. That loss was avenged, though, by the junior varsity which trampled their rivals 25-0.

In the varsity confrontation, Romulus eked out a 12-6 victory.

The Romulus Flyers had their problems in the season opener against the Westland Comets who swept all three games from the local contingents.

The Comets' freshman shut out the Flyers 13-0 and the Junior Varsity also was blanked by the Westlanders 19-0.

Quarterback Jim Parker passed to Carlos Montez for one touchdown and scored another but it wasn't enough as the Varsity Flyers fell 37-19 to their peers.

New Belleville CC coach has 1st win

Turning in some of their best times of the year, Belleville harriers breezed past nonleague rival, Ypsilanti 20-41 to give first year coach Gordon Minty his inaugural victory.

Belleville's Harold Gable was the pacesetter as he turned in a 16:30 to claim individual honors. Teammate Don Buhro was clocked in the third best time of 17:07, while the Tiger runners were also fourth, fifth and seventh.

Kevin Cliff posted a 17:10 over the 3-mile course for fourth. He was followed to the wire by Keith Williams, who had a 17:11 effort, and in seventh place was Mike Misna (17:28).

"Our boys ran their fastest times," said Minty, a former Eastern Michigan star who himself is preparing to compete in the Olympic trials in the distance events.

"I feel we have a fine team and they're going to get better as the season matures," he added.

For improvements

Townships net funds

Fourteen Wayne County communities, including Van Buren and Sumpter townships, are in line to share $637,000 of the federal Community Development Grant, according to the chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The funds, destined for public works projects that will spur employment, were received through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The County Board of Commissioners applied for the grant on behalf of the localities.

Commission chairman Roscoe said grants of three amounts would go to the 17 cities and townships, based on population.

In addition, a total of $78,500 will be retained in a central fund for housing needs. Any of the 17 localities and the county may apply to the fund to finance rehabilitation of vacant housing units or for planning of senior citizens housing.

The central fund will be controlled by the Wayne County Community Development Advisory Council which consists of five elected County officials and 10 elected local officials.

Seven communities with population between 10,000 and 19,999 each will receive $32,951. They are Ecorse, Grosse Pointe Park, Melvindale and Plymouth, plus Canton, Plymouth and Van Buren townships.

Grants of $26,364 will go to each of eight communities with populations under 9,999. The eight are Flat Rock, Gibraltar, Grosse Pointe, Northville and the townships of Brownstown, Grosse Ile, Northville and Sumpter.

In notifying the 17 communities of the grant, Bobo described the successful bid for funds as "a strong first-year start" which "will set the stage for more appropriate HUD funding in future years."

He added:

"I consider this grant significant because it is another demonstration of how Wayne County functions as a coordinator for the communities within county boundaries."

Construction 'boom' invades Willow Creek Metropark

Two tennis courts, two basketball courts, 10 shuffleboard courts, a tot lot and concrete walkways are part of the work that will be done during the next several months at the Willow Creek Metropark, a 1,500-acre site near New Boston.

According to William E. Kreger, the Wayne County representative to the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority, the regional agency for the 10 metroparks in Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw counties, public use of the new facilities, located adjacent to the olympic-sized swimming pool, is expected in spring 1976.

Funds for the project are part of a $1.8 million grant, providing for the construction of the swimming pool-games complex from the State Recreational Board, approved by voters in 1968. The money is administered by the Department of Natural Resources.

The Taylor firm of Best Asphalt Inc. has netted the tennis and basketball courts construction contract, while Master Builders of Ann Arbor have been signed to provide the 1,200 square feet of sidewalks, all grading for the tot lot and the construction of the shuffleboard court.

St. Paul's building marks its 25th year

St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church of New Boston will be celebrating its 25th anniversary during regular morning worship services at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

The anniversary is of the church building.

The Rev. Walter Gienapp, pastor of St. Paul during the period when the structure was constructed, will be guest speaker during the two services.

Following the services, a potluck dinner will be served at 12 p.m. in the parish building. Included in the afternoon program will be the recognition of past and present parish members.

'Mini-city hall' set; Council okays funds

Plans are being made to open a "mini-city hall" in Romulus. The Romulus City Council has appropriated funds for the renovation of a 4-bedroom home in the Meadows Subdivision for use as an office centrally located in the city's major abandoned housing problem area.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt said that an area citizen, Louise Cumberland, will serve as a part-time secretary and coordinator at the building to begin distributing information to residents of the Meadows area on how housing can be saved.

The Meadows contains more than 40 abandoned homes.

The homes, funded under federally-backed mortgage payment programs, were vacated by their owners when they could not make mortgage payments on the structures.

City workers have been busy cleaning up the abandoned housing in the subdivision at Eureka and Harrison roads in an effort to show that the city is interested in obtaining a special federal grant to implement a pilot homesteading program proposed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to get abandoned housing back into the hands of private ownership.

HUD oversees programs which insured mortgage payments and which took possession of the abandoned structures when their owners defaulted on monthly payments.

According to Troutt, the city's presentation on the need for the homesteading money impressed area HUD Director Elmer C. Binford when he was in the city to mark the successful completion of the Wayne-Beverly Urban Renewal Project — another HUD financed program.

"While Mr. Binford doesn't have the final say on whether we obtain the grant, his word is valuable in getting our application through the procedures of approval," Troutt said.

The City Council approved submission of applications for the grant — an estimated $500,000 — at a meeting earlier this month.

Troutt said he expects word on the grant sometime near the end of the month.

The grant would be used to purchase abandoned structures and to fund their resale to persons with financial backing who would agree to live in the structures and renovate them during a 3-year period.

If the persons who were renting the structures during the time period desired, their rent payments could be applied toward final purchase of the home under the provisions of the program.

If the original homesteader did not desire to purchase the structure, it would be sold on the open market by the city.

Troutt said he is hoping to obtain the funding to conduct a program similar to a successful plan implemented in Taylor.

In township

Drains to be cleaned

Van Buren Township workers will be making a major effort toward cleaning the community's storm drains within the next month.

Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer said the big push should begin when farm fields are cleared of crops by mid-October.

"We've been going at the drain cleaning program on a piecemeal basis during the past few months because we don't want to spoil a farmer's crops in fields where drains run," Gollwitzer added. "But with the harvest completed, there will be no problem in completing the task in those fields."

Although the township has easements rights through fields which allow access to storm drains for such projects as cleaning, Gollwitzer said crews were instructed to avoid entering planted fields, if at all possible, rather than inconvenience residents.

"In some cases, the citizens of the township waited as long as 100 years for the Wayne County Drain Commissioner to do this project," Gollwitzer continued. "So when the township took it upon itself to do the chore, to avoid special assessments now charged to residents by the drain commissioner for drain maintenance, the relative harm in waiting to get at some drains until after the harvest is minimal."

Township officials embarked on the massive drain cleaning effort, designed to improve storm flow off of township land and roads, more than a year ago, when the township received funds under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) and revenue sharing money from the federal governments.

The CETA program provided money for hiring workers, and revenue sharing allocations were used to purchase equipment to perform the work on storm drain cleaning.

Despite the slowdown in some areas because of the farming in the township, the work has progressed steadily.

"There were a lot of fields in the township which laid fallow during the summer, so work could be done," Gollwitzer said. "The crews were busy, but they had to jump from area to area when they ran into a drain which needed work in a planted field."

"Now the chore will be to connect up the cleaned spots through planted fields and then to continue the work throughout the township."

At present, the southwestern quadrant of the township is all but done, according to Gollwitzer. The work was begun in that area, approximately five square miles bounded by Rawsonville, Sumpter and Bemis roads south of Belleville Lake because that area was most in need of drain maintenance. Plans are to progress from that area to the north and east until the entire township is done.

Gollwitzer said residents in the southwestern section, where sanitary sewer service is minimal, will notice improvement in their septic tank set-ups once the storm drain work is complete.

"The end result not only is moving the water from the land, but also lowering the water table and providing a more efficient means for septic tanks to work," Gollwitzer added.

PRIZE WINNER — P.J. Maschek (left) won a prize during his cub pack's recent raffle. The Webelos in Pack 1071 of the United Methodist Church of Belleville received a sleeping bag for holding one of the winning tickets in the fund-raising drawing. Mickey Marsh of Mickey's Plumbing and Home Repair presented the prize to the club. P.J. also happened to be the second-place ticket salesman in the cub pack.

Lawsuit info available at Romulus City Hall

Romulus area residents interested in information on a possible lawsuit to collect damages caused by overflights from Detroit Metropolitan Airport can obtain that information from the Romulus City Hall.

The City Hall has become the focal point in an attempt by area residents to organize a damage suit against the airport similar to a lawsuit brought against the Los Angeles Airport by attorney Jerrold Fadem.

Plaintiffs in the Los Angeles suit were awarded damages ranging from $1,500 to $9,500 due to noise problems caused their homes by aircraft overflights from one runway.

Fadem was in Romulus a week ago to outline the possibilities of a lawsuit, and to obtain an idea of the public's support for such a plan.

The attorney indicated to a gathering of 400 residents Sept. 4 that 500 families would have to pledge $200 apiece to make a lawsuit against the airport possible.

As in the Los Angeles case, the funds collected from the families would be used for research into the problems caused individual families by aircraft overflights.

The attorney's fees would be paid as a percentage of the settlement. Fadem is the same attorney who won a permanent injunction against construction of a third northeast-to-southwest runway in the airport pending the filing of a master plan and an environmental impact statement from that master plan with the Environmental Protection Agency by the Wayne County Road Commission.

The injunction halted construction of the $33 million, 12,000 foot instrumented runway deemed necessary for increasing airport operations by the Road Commission, operators of the airport.

A spokesman for the Road commission refused comment on the possible law suit when contacted last week.

Romulus woman earns new rank

A Romulus resident has earned a new rank in the Wayne-Romulus Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol, following recent promotion ceremonies.

Suzi Block of Middle Belt Road was promoted to cadet first class during the festivities. She also received the Hap Arnold Achievement Ribbon.

Column has continuations from past week

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Although it's not been the custom to run "to be continued" stories in this column, we seem to have not one, but two, in that vein this week. Deadlines pose a problem sometimes as does lack of space in which to include all the information a person has gathered. Plus items often arrive too late for processing.

On the "serial" line we have a few more notes on Mary Doran's birthday which turned out to be one heckuva day-long celebration. Not only did she have a surprise luncheon pulled on her mid-day on the 4th but that evening had a reunion of the event.

Seems that she and hubby, Chuck, were about to turn in for the night when they suddenly noticed car lights turning into their drive on Biggs Street. Then the cavalcade of friends began pouring in: Dorothy and Wally Skszek bearing a homemade torte cake and beautiful red rose bud; Ernie Patke toting a 3-pound can of coffee and his wife, Virginia, dashing with the ice cream; Katherine Day with a box of candles and her hubby, Frank, and Art and Helen Wiertella bringing up the rear with the rest of the party paraphernalia.

The party makers managed to stay until midnight — long enough to extend their "happy birthdays" to Wally Skszek whose natal date is just two days after Mary's.

Still more on students

A couple weeks back we did a feature on what the area's recent graduates and alumni had planned for coming months. We thank those who took the time to let us know where their young men and women were heading and what they were doing this fall. All our information was garnered from the parents and students themselves who helped fill us in on their friends and neighbors.

There has been some question as to why some people were "left out" of the story. We can only say that if we don't hear from YOU, we can't write about it. Our best source of information is our readers themselves. So — give us a call anytime you've something to tell us about your family.

Inadvertently deleted from the recent "returnee" roster were Dave Duane, who is tallying up his senior credits at Michigan State University; Kevin Owen, a senior transfer to Western Michigan University from Eastern Michigan (EMU); and Gary Van Buhler, who continues to add his sophomore talents to EMU's track team.

Clayton and Margaret Meldrum of Romulus called in to let us know that their daughter, Nancy Gent, is currently attending Kirtland Community College in Roscommon. A 1975 Romulus High grad, she is furthering her education in cosmetology.

Still another ring came from Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beck of Borgman Road, Belleville, regarding their son, Jeff. Chosen as part of the "All Area Football Team" from Belleville High, Jeff now is a student at Saginaw Valley College.

She's now a "retiree"

Ina Lunde, that lovely silver-haired lady who is lovingly called "Beanblossom" (her maiden name) by her husband, Fred, is now among the newly retired. Hard as it is to believe, that bundle of energy has closed her account books, slipped the cover on her typewriter and turned in her key to the 34th District Court.

It all happened Sept. 5 when Ina spent her last day in the Romulus-based building where she has checked in daily since the court's birth in January of 1969.

What the lady didn't expect was the surprise party which her co-workers had planned in her honor. There was a cake with a little rocking chair resting on top, a centerpiece of fresh blooms and a bracelet with which Ina will never part since the charms depict her "days in court" — a tiny silver adding machine, an equally small typewriter eraser, a piece of luggage complete with travel stickers, a miniature poker hand bearing a straight flush and a wee key.

Now that she's joined her husband on that "golden year" plateau, they are planning trips to Arkansas and Florida to look over prospective retirement spots. The twosome also hope to spend more time visiting their children, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She flies in for shower

Terri Mulberry, who is slated to be an October bride, winged her way in from Glenmoore, Pa. Sept. 5 in order to be the guest of honor at a pre-nuptial party. Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Gene Mulberry, they were among the 105 guests at the miscellaneous shower held at the Calvary Baptist Church in Romulus.

The party was given by Terri's aunt Ella Moore; her grandmother Mrs. George Stanton and her maid of honor Karen Hoyle, all of Romulus.

Highlighting the party was a clever "mock wedding" in which Mrs. Moore took the role of the minister; Marlene Stanton that of the groom and Miss Hoyle the bride. A film, "Splendor of Love" was also shown and dinner served at 6:30 p.m.

The biggest surprise for the bride-elect, though, was the arrival of her fiancé, John McCumber, from Springfield, Mo. The hostesses had alerted him to the plans and decided it was an ideal time for him to be introduced to his future wife's relatives and friends; the Mulberrys being former residents of Wick Road, Romulus.

The guest list included another grandmother, Mrs. Marcella Mulberry of Sarasota, Fla.; a great aunt, Mrs. Ella Johns, and Mrs. Dorothy Beasley of Crystal, Mich. (the latter assisting Mrs. Stanton with her portion of the party) and Mrs. Florence Harris of Plant City, Fla. who helped make the doll centerpieces.

Mrs. Zula Knight also gave a hand with the floral arrangements which were used on the individual tables. The mint, forest green and white color scheme of the wedding was used throughout the room.

Terri and John, both students at Baptist Bible College in Springfield, will return to Romulus to be married Oct. 11 at Calvary Baptist Church.

Matthew's number six

Van Buren Township treasurer, Dorothy York, is boasting about her new grandson, Matthew Joseph Luebke, who made his way into the world Sept. 8 at Beyer Memorial Hospital.

The 8 lb., -10 oz. newcomer is the third child of Cleva and Ed Luebke who also reside in Van Buren Township. Their other children are Richard, five, and Cheryl, eight.

Grandmother Dorothy (like all grandmothers) says, "The baby is beautiful" and she has pictures to prove it! Matthew is the sixth grandchild for Dorothy and her husband, Paul.

Kline household busy

The Kline children have managed to keep Chuck and Lucy's home on Cherry Avenue in Romulus a busy place these waning summer days.

First off, Glenn Gerald Miller, their son, returned earlier this summer to Romulus after living in Seattle, Wash. for the past year (in the suburb of Bellevue, actually, Lucy explained.)

He had been attending Bellevue Junior High School and after graduation arrived here in time to celebrate his 15th birthday with his family. Festivities took place in Saugatuck while on a weekend trip with his parents, little brother Franklin and sister Cheryl. Beside the family party, the day was highlighted by the Venetian Water Festival taking place in Saugatuck.

Then there was the birthday of Cheryl Ruth Kline who had five candles on her cake when her parents entertained several little friends at their home.

Games were played, prizes awarded and then the cake, ice cream and punch made its appearance and fast disappearance. Sharing the afternoon with Cheryl were Desiree Teeters, Jimmy Witt, Janie and Theresa Cemer, Lisa Roy and Alain Cabaret.

Of course, Cheryl's two brothers also had a hand in the celebration.

Couple plan October rite

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mulberry of Glenmoore, Pa. announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Terri, to John McCumber of

MISS MULBERRY

Springfield, Mo. The Mulberrys are former residents of Wick Road, Romulus.

The bride-elect attended Romulus High School and graduated from Owen J. Roberts High School in Glenmoore. She currently is in her junior year at Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Mo. where she met her future husband and became betrothed.

The prospective bridegroom, a second year student at the college, is the son of New Mexico residents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCumber. He not only attends school but is employed at a local convalescent home in Springfield.

The couple plan to return to Romulus to be married Oct. 11 at Calvary Baptist Church.

HV Garden Club opens new year

The Huron Valley Garden Club met Sept. 8 at the home of Mrs. D.W. Blend of Juniper Drive, Belleville. Twenty-two members and one guest were present. The president Mrs. William Hennells welcomed a new member, Mrs. Laurence Zager.

The club wishes to acknowledge the donations and assistance of Walter and Frank Rochowiak who helped plant and maintain the church directory planter at the corner of Liberty Street and Belleville Road. The flowers were in red, white and blue in keeping with the Bicentennial theme.

Following the business session, the group arranged flowers which they had brought from their gardens. Serving as instructors were three club members, Mrs. Rodney Mast, Mrs. John Gras and Mrs. Melvin Budd.

The next meeting Oct. 6 will be a tour of the Botanical Gardens in Ann Arbor.

Senior citizens take Smoky Mountain tour

The Smoky Mountain bus tour which the Romulus Senior Citizens Club was looking forward to all summer is now just a pleasant memory for the 39 who attended. The club's coordinators, Mary Butz and Kay Cahoon, were along for the ride and guided tour from Sept. 4-9.

The Grand Old Opry and Opry Land in Nashville, Tenn. were but two of the highlights of the trip. At Clingman's Pointe, which is 5,700 feet above sea level, the travelers could stand in either North Carolina or Tennessee.

Upcoming plans include today's bus trip to Pointe Pelee, Ontario; Fort Malden and "Ducks on the Roof" for dinner. Two busloads of senior citizens were planning to participate.

On Sept. 23 the group will meet at 10 a.m. for its regular pot luck dinner at the Romulus VFW Hall.

Dave Remus, Jan Mosora exchange wedding vows

The marriage of Janice Mosora and David Remus recently was solemnized at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. The Rev. Raymond Skoney presided at the 5 p.m. rite before some 200 assembled relatives and friends.

For the summer wedding the altar was appointed with branched candelabra and two bouquets of mixed chrysanthemums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mosora, formerly of Belleville and now of Onkama, Mich. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Remus of 862 Sumpter Road, Belleville.

Music was supplied by Lori Ackron and Susan Fino who were organist and soloist, respectively.

Escorted to the sanctuary by her father, Jan appeared in a sheer polyester floor length creation accented with a deep flounce at the hemline. The little fitted bodice featured sheer bishop sleeves and a circular yoke frosted with venise lace appliques. Blue satin ribbon added a touch of color at the waist and formed a bow at the back. Her cathedral-length illusion veil drifted from a small cap of venise lace. Completing her bridal ensemble was an arrangement of white and blue satin rosebuds, trailing ivy and ribbon streamers which had been made by Mrs. Daryl Bauman.

Mrs. Harlan (Nancy) Davenport of Belleville was her sister's honor attendant in an apricot gown. Bridesmaids in identical maize outfits were Mrs. Keith Horvath of Allen Park; Mary Klimecki of Ypsilanti; Pamela Weiss of Belleville and Mrs. Joseph Baumstark of Hamburg.

Their chiffon gowns were patterned in the A-line mode with peplum waists and flounced hems. The bodices were made with band necklines, tucked yokes and button trim. Their picture hats were encircled with long chiffon scarfs and their bouquets were comprised of forget-me-nots, ivy and satin roses to match their frocks.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Mike Remus of Belleville, to be best man. Jim Reed, Jim Harris,

Read 'inside info' on house plants

Today's "in" pastime seems to be the tender, loving care of house plants. And, of course, along with TLC goes the continuing controversy on whether their progress can be attributed to the soft croon of their master or mistress' voice. At the Belleville Public Library located at 167 Fourth Street, there's a new book by Jerry Baker which dwells completely on the how-to's of all kinds of indoor fauna and flora. If cooking as well as house greenery is your passion, a new cookbook is out which also has somewhat of a Bicentennial touch since it deals with historic Williamsburg. And, too, for the gun collecting buffs, Frederick Wilkinson has come up with his findings on antique firearms. Don't stop there, though, because there is literally everything in print to satisfy a person's reading whims.

NON-FICTION
"I Never Met a House Plant I Didn't Like" by Jerry Baker. Complete with illustrations, the book concerns house plants and gardening.

"The Witches of All Saints" by Jill Tattersall. Tansy's discovery of a murdered farm girl in an abandoned church leads to a coven of witches.

"The Williamsburg Cookbook" by Letha Booth. Traditional and contemporary recipes initially compiled and adapted by Letha Booth and the staff of Colonial Williamsburg. The book is complete with commentary by Joan Parry Dutton and color photographs by Taylor Biggs Lewis Jr.

"Antique Guns and Gun Collecting" by Frederick Wilkinson. An illustrated book on the history of firearms, gun collectors and collecting.

FICTION
"Stonewall Brigade" by Frank G. Slaughter. A novel about General Stonewall Jackson and his Confederate brigade, centering on a young army doctor who is in love with a Cherokee girl, the niece of a famous Cherokee leader.

"A Good Confession" by Elizabeth Savage. The imminent death of her grandfather brings Meg back to her childhood home and evokes a stream of memories of the places and people that influenced her life.

"The Jade Dragon" by Nancy Buckingham. Elinor's visit to her mother's relatives in Portugal is marred by hostility and intrigues.

Skidmore-Schwartz wed

Wayne church site of evening vows

Following a honeymoon in Illinois, the newly wed James Roy Skidmore took up residence on International Drive, Ypsilanti.

Barbara Ann Schwartz became Mrs. Skidmore in a summer ceremony held at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne. The Aug. 1 nuptial rite was conducted by the Rev. John Buehner with double rings being exchanged.

The 6:30 p.m. wedding united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schwartz of 36762 Greenbush, Wayne, and the son of Daryl Skidmore of 7655 Huron River Drive, Ypsilanti, and Bonnie Skidmore of Belleville.

Pam Wallace of Westland served as soloist and organist. Some 200 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed in the Burgundy Room of the Knights of Columbus Club in Wayne.

For the occasion the altar was graced with two arrangements of white fugi mums and carnations and large vases of greenery.

The bride entered the aisle wearing a white silk organza gown with a Mandarin collar and beaded lace yoke outlined with a white lace ruffle. The lace motif was repeated on the wrists of the long sleeves and again in a deep ruffle at the bottom of the skirt which extended into a chapel train. A lace headdress held the bride's waist-length veil which was banded in matching lace and a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy completed her ensemble.

A colonial bouquet of baby's breath and carnations tipped to match her dress was carried by the maid of honor, Kathy Rackleyft of Wayne. She was distinguished by a print gown in orchids, blues and pinks on white topped with a matching overblouse with long puffy sleeves. Her dress, made of whipped cream fabric, was accented by a colonial bouquet of baby's breath and carnations tipped in the dress colors. Sprigs of baby's breath were tucked in her hair.

Bridesmaids in orchid crepe frocks with overblouses to match that of the honor attendant were Cindy Taylor of Westland; Mrs. Bruce Baras of Ypsilanti, a cousin of the bridegroom; and Linda Sue Smith of Westland. Their bouquets were identical to Miss Rackleyft's with their hair arrangements including three miniature carnations as well as baby's breath.

Joy Bara, the daughter of the Bruce Baras of Ypsilanti, wore a miniature version of the senior attendants' frocks for her part as flowergirl. Carrying out the role of ringbearer was Robert Robertson, the son of the Chester Robertsons of Belleville and a cousin of the bridegroom.

Mike Skidmore of Brooklyn, Mich. was his brother's best man. Others on the esquire side were Bruce Bara and Wayne Cornell of Ypsilanti and Steve Schwartz of Wayne, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion an A-line powder blue polyester knit gown frosted with a white rose design. For her son's wedding Mrs. Skidmore chose a sage green polyester knit formal gown. White gardenia corsages were presented to both mothers.

Two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Berl Womers of Springfield, Ill. and Mrs. Cecil Jones of Quincy, Ill., served as hostesses at the reception.

The newlyweds motored to Illinois, their final destination being Quincy where they attended the 26th annual Schwartz family reunion.

A 1975 graduate of John Glenn High School, the new Mrs. Skidmore is employed at Cobb Pharmacy in Wayne and plans to enter nurse's training. Her husband graduated from Belleville High School, attended Eastern Michigan University and is employed at the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES R. SKIDMORE

Sewing featured at Home Arts Club

The home economics room at North Junior High School continues to be reserved the second Monday of each month for the Home Arts Club meetings. The new club season opened Sept. 8 with Mildred Baker, president, presiding. Having received letters of resignation from two of her fellow officers, Mrs. Baker announced the acceptance by Mary Kosin and Betty Gott to the offices of recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively. Bev Eichold is the new vice-president and Eunice Kause the treasurer.

During roll call, 24 members were recorded and eight guests introduced: Monica Mendez, Theora Wilkie, Greta Mercer, Agnes Elliott, Dorothy Curtis, Blanche Boone, Beatrice Caminidi and Luanne Nelson.

Program chairman Avis White outlined plans for the annual October smorgasbord which, this year, will be an array of desserts rather than the usual dinner. The officers will be in charge of arrangements. Members are urged to bring guests.

Guest speaker for the evening was Nancy Rueland of JoAnne Fabrics in Gault Village. She brought several Bicentennial costumes for display and explained various patterns which are available for the celebration. She also showed transfers which can be applied to the popular workshirt which teens have taken to, and also had samplers to exhibit.

Sally Jones and her committee, Muriel Wolfe, Bev Sparrow and Virginia Turney served refreshments at the close of the evening.

BPW opens club year; marks 28th birthday

The Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) held its regular meeting Sept. 8 at the new Faith United Methodist Church in Denton where all the 1975-76 meetings are to be held.

Guests included members from the Ypsilanti BPW Club as well as potential members. The club year theme, "Perspective for Women in the Bicentennial Year," was used and the decorations were carried out in a red, white and blue theme. The membership committee, responsible for the planning and program, included Ruth Davis as chair person along with Bertha Rettig, Evelyn Pullen, Jean Oddy and Audrey Jackson.

The meeting was special since the Belleville club was celebrating its 28th birthday and had a noted guest Joyce Mallory, the state president, who is also a member of the Ypsilanti club.

The Belleville BPW, coincidentally, was chartered by the Ypsilanti group at the old Denton Methodist Church in 1947. Cora Horton, who was president of the Ypsilanti club at the time, was another special guest.

Mrs. Mallory spoke on setting a goal to increase membership and also maintaining members for the Bicentennial year. Plans were discussed regarding the state board meeting at Boyne Mountain on Sept. 27 and 28. The District XV meeting on Oct. 15 at the Presidential Inn in Allen Park was also on the agenda. Belleville and Allen Park members will act as hostesses at the event.

The October BPW

meeting will be the annual "Women of the Year" award banquet and should be scheduled on all members' calendars.

Eva Luper, who chaired the annual fall rummage sale, reported on its success; the money being earmarked for the club's annual scholarship.

The board of directors will meet Sept. 22 at the home of Margaret Saunders.

With 12 years of secretarial experience, she joined the firm in July 1974. She decided to add a new dimension to her career as an insurance representative this year. Among her responsibilities with the agency is head of the cancer insurance department. A life-long resident of Romulus, Miss Richardson now lives in Wayne.

The scouts of Cub Scout Pack 1071 recently had Elmer Abbott, the president of the 4-H Fair Board do the honors in drawing the winners of the group's raffle, held in conjunction with the scouts' 4-H booth.

The winners of the two 10-speed bicycles, one of which was donated by DE Home Care Products, was M. Holcomb and Benny Cantrell. Pat Green collected the tape recorder, while Fay Ferguson won the mother-daughter poncho set, Diete Spiff, the afghan, and Wilma Henderson the hairpin lace shawl.

The tape recorder was donated by Mickel's Plumbing and Home Repair.

Jeff Marsh was the top salesman in the raffle and received a cash award. J.J. Maschek placed second, winning a sleeping bag. Eddie and Mike Fletcher and Jeff Marsh also collected cash awards for having sold the winning tickets for the 10-speed bicycles.

Scouts ready for annual fall roundup membership drive

Boys in Western Wayne County are being invited to join Scout troops or Cub Scout packs as a part of the annual fall roundup membership program of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The Heritage '75 Rally will include Cub Scout and Boy Scout School rallies in 900 schools in the suburban area. There are more than 316,000 boys of scouting age in the Detroit area.

The Cub Scout program is family-centered for boys who have completed the second grade or who are 8 to 10 years of age. They meet weekly as a den under the supervision of a den leader. Monthly, all the dens come together for a pack meeting, led by the cubmaster. Boys start as Bobcats and, through achievements earn Wolf, Bear and Arrow of Light awards.

The Scout program is for boys who have completed the fifth grade or who are 11 through 17 years of age. It is designed to develop character, mental and physical fitness and citizenship training. The focus is on rounding out one's physical and mental fitness through a vigorous program of activities.

Boys join patrols and elect their own patrol leader. They usually meet once a week as a troop under the guidance of a scoutmaster. A boy joins as a Scout and can achieve Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, Life and Eagle progress awards.

Additional information about the Scout and Cub Scout programs is available from the Detroit Area Council Service Center, 1776 West Warren Avenue, or by calling 897-1965. Boys who join Scouting now also may attend the Bicentennial Jambo '75 in October.

EXTRACTION METHOD RESTORES CARPET PILE AND REDUCES DRYING TIME

There are no brushes or beaters to wear and tear carpet pile. Instead, cleaning solution is pumped through pressure nozzles deep down into the carpet to dislodge embedded dirt, soil and old shampoo residue. A powerful vacuum simultaneously extracts the moisture and dirt as the cleaning wand is gently pulled over carpet.

WHAT IT DOES: ELIMINATES SOIL AND SHAMPOO BUILD-UP AND REDUCES SUB SURFACE WEAR.

The powerful penetration and extraction action of hot water extraction cleaning helps restore carpet pile. Embedding soil particles are forced into suspension, then extracted from the full depth of the carpet. Old shampoo build-up is also dissolved and removed, eliminating a major cause of carpet pile distortion and fiber wear. Carpet luster is restored and carpet life extended. Excessive soaking is eliminated, which reduces the danger of carpet shrinkage.

RESULT:

A professionally cleaned carpet with restored pile, minimum drying time and sub-soil removed for less wear and longer carpet life.

Restore your carpet without damaging your pocket book. Rent a professional, easy to use power mist soil extraction machine from

2. In Memoriam
JERRY, is missed so by us and all of his friends. Howard Watkins Family, 34966 Richard St., Wayne.

BEYOND THE SUNSET
Should you go first & I remain to walk the road alone, I'll live in memories garden, dear. With happy days we've known. In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue. In early fall when brown leaves fall, I'll catch a glimpse of you. In memory of Edsel Beaudrie Sr., who passed away 1 yr. ago, Sept. 21st. Lovingly Wife, Children & Grandchildren.

5. Personals
